The Highfield Spa Experience

"It's been years since I've had such a relaxing bath!"
"The whirlpool really helped soothe my arthritis."
"What a difference! The room is beautiful, the tub is just wonderful. What more could you want?"

These are just some of the remarks made by Highfield, Masonic Home of Delaware residents after enjoying the new Highfield Spa Experience which was completed earlier this spring. The new spa features aromatherapy and relaxing music to create a soothing and dignified environment for the residents.

The new MasterCare Integrity tub offers a low level mobile chair transfer system with a built in multi-position, reclining feature for deeper immersion. The front door entry system – single pivot counter balanced door self aligns to seal for safety, so the staff member is able to focus on the resident. Other features include thermoscopic mixing value and the BathAireSM warm air hydro massage. The BaithAireSM system injects warm air through 24 openings in the tub, keeping the tub water warm and creating a massaging action. Self-sealing air valve outlets prevent contaminated water from entering the internal air system, reducing the potential for cross-contamination. This provides the residents with a healthier bathing environment.

The Highfield Spa experience was made possible through the many donations from members of the Masonic craft in Delaware and families of former residents. A plaque recognizing these donors mounted on the wall outside the spa, reads:
